

Bank Robbery

Putting the story in order

taken but the bank has not yet revealed how much.
Police arrived within minutes after shots were Detective Superintendent Andy Chan of B Division later made a statement saying that no arrests had been heard coming from inside the bank and a member of the public dialled 999.
Armed robbers have escaped with an unknown quantity of cash in a daylight raid on a bank in Central District, Hong Kong.
One customer told reporters, 'We were told
A large area of Central District was sealed
It is thought that at least ten million Hong Kong dollars (US$ 1.3 million) in cash and other valuables were off bringing traffic to a standstill. However, all of the thieves managed to escape.
made so far but he was confident the men would be found soon.
to lie on the floor and that if anyone moved they would be shot.'